NIA/ADEAR
Update – September 2015

Web Resources Supporting Recruitment

Page and infographic

nia.nih.gov/alzheimers/volunteer

Recruiting Older Adults Into Research (ROAR) Toolkit & Clinical Trials and Older People Tip Sheets...

ROAR Toolkit, developed by ACL, NIH, and CDC to encourage older adult participation in research, includes:

◆ User Guide, FAQs, flyers, social media messages
◆ Slides: "Healthy Aging & Participating in Research" (long and short versions), with speaker's notes

nia.nih.gov/health/publication/roar-toolkit

4th Annual NIA/ACL/CDC Webinar Series

Details at nia.nih.gov/alzheimers/announcements/2015/09/2015-alzheimers-related-dementias-webinar-series-professionals.

CEUs are available through Fall 2017!

■ Webinar #1: Alzheimer's & Dementia: Resources you can use - held on September 22. Archived webinar available soon!

■ Webinar #2: October 21, 2-3:30 pm (ET) What's Happening in Alzheimer's Research?

■ Webinar #3: November 17, 2-3:30 p.m. (ET) Caregivers Supporting People with Dementia: New Research and Technology

Booklet: Participating in Alzheimer's Research - For Yourself and Future Generations

nia.nih.gov/alzheimers/publication/participating-alzheimers-research/introduction

...Also Now available in Spanish and Chinese!

Reaching for a Cure...NIH Alzheimer's and Dementia Bypass Budget FY17

Download at:
nia.nih.gov/alzheimers/bypass-budget-fy2017

Budget document   Executive Summary

---

Order Publications Online
nia.nih.gov/health/publication

Bulk copies available!

Call ADEAR
1-800-438-4380

Web Resources for Health Professionals

Quick Guide for physicians on cognitive assessment

This brief overview offers tips and resources for primary care clinicians to assess cognitive impairment in their older patients. Available at:

nia.nih.gov/alzheimers/physician-education

Coming Soon:
- Managing patients with dementia
- Patient/caregiver education handout

Clinical practice tools and training materials

Access free clinical practice tools, training materials, and more resources for physicians, nurses, social workers, and other professionals.

nia.nih.gov/alzheimers/alzheimers-and-dementia-resources-professionals

NIA Web Content Available for Your Site

- Gain direct access to NIA and ADEAR web content without having to make updates.
- Present NIA content in the look and feel of your website.
- Control which pages and content to use on your site and where it appears.
- Integrate HHS content with your own.
  nia.nih.gov/health/get-free-content

Staying Connected with ADEAR/NIA

- Sign up for e-alerts
- Subscribe to the Inside NIA Blog
- Follow ADEAR on Twitter @Alzheimers_NIH
- View videos on NIA YouTube channel

nia.nih.gov/contact/stay-connected

Reminder:

◆ Online caregiving tipsheets are available in a variety of formats: HTML, PDF, EPub, Kindle versions: nia.nih.gov/alzheimers/topics/caregiving

Coming Soon:

◆ Fact sheet on Down syndrome and Alzheimer's dementia

NIA/ADEAR can get the word out about your news

■ Send Us Your Papers! The NIA Communications Office is interested in sharing news about NIA-funded research and we are featuring more Research Highlights on our website. When you submit a paper to a journal (or latest, when it is accepted), please e-mail a copy to nianews3@mail.nih.gov. NIA staff will consider it for a possible news release or research highlight, Twitter, or other venue. Please call 301-496-1752 or e-mail Peggy Vaughn (Peggy.Vaughn@nih.gov) or Barbara Cire (cireb@mail.nih.gov) if you have questions.

We can tweet your news! ADEAR now reaching more than 10,000 followers and subscribers

■ Share participant or researcher stories, cool images, and videos! We are always in search of stories, videos, and images for the ADEAR and other NIA/NIH websites, presentations, and the media. For example, see the NIA YouTube channel for recruitment videos originally created by the Northwestern ADC and adapted for ADEAR. We'd love to feature your work! Talk to Peggy Vaughn or Jennifer Watson.

For more information contact:

■ Jennifer Watson, NIA Project Officer for ADEAR
301-496-1752, email: watsonjl@nia.nih.gov

■ David Burton, ADEAR Project Director
240-645-4155, email: david.burton@nih.gov